

It has to do with what you're doing right here, right now--in this moment.

Note from the editor:

January 2010 - New Beginnings and Fresh Perspectives can be had in any instant you choose... and it's as easy as telling a different story.

Do you know who you REALLY are??? You are a beautiful, perfect, infinite Being and any story that expresses less than that is the real 'lie'!

So start telling the story of who you really are!!!

Start telling a story that feels more downstream to you. And how do you know what's downstream and what's upstream? You can tell by the pressure against you. In other words...

tell the story of your successes, tell the story of your strengths, tell the story of your beauty, tell the story of your caring, tell the story of your passions, tell the story of how wonderfully your body functions, tell the story of health... find the story that feels better to you and get off your own back because guess what...

The Universe will ALWAYS back up your story!!!

So if you can't look at your current body or current life now and LOVE IT then look at your past or future body and life and LOVE IT or look at something else all together different that you do LOVE and your life will get up to speed with it faster than you might believe.

May the story of 2010 be the greatest version of your Grandest Vision EVER!!!

Much love and laughter,

Deliberately evolving,
