

Dinner with Frayed – May 19, 2007

'When you see passion in another, you know you stand in the company of greatness!'

Frayed is a new 'Mountain Rock Band' made up of 3 beautiful young men who have a passion for their music that is rarely seen.

To catch up on how we met the boys in Frayed please see 'Wayne's Blog,'

Over the Christmas season in an email exchange, we had all agreed to get together for dinner one night. What we couldn't agree on though was when. Well we finally landed on a date last week and we joined Jeremy Cooper, Dallas Lockery and Jordan Faye for dinner at Jeremy's house on Saturday May 19, 2007.

We took the train into Toronto.

The guys honored us by bringing their friend John who is a chef to BBQ us the most perfect rib eye steak and grilled veggies. I can't remember ever eating such a perfect steak!! I was cutting it with a butter knife!!

John the Chef.

Mmmmmmm what a steak!!

Once we had eaten the antics, fun, music and compelling conversation began. Here are some fun photos to give you an idea. 😊

Jordan considering something Wayne had said.

Dallas listening in.

Jeremy seeming intrigued

What a wonderful and refreshing bunch. They ask questions and genuinely listen to the answer. They also answer questions to the best of the ability. It was a learning and growing experience for all of us!!

Good friends Jordan and Dallas have known each other for a very long time.

Imagine getting to do what you love to do most with close friends.

Dallas and Jeremy goofing around.

How many hands can we get on the fret board?

Dallas expressing his love of being a minstrel. 😊

Jeremy and Jordan playing us a tune.

Jeremy, 'I think it went like this...'

Jordan, 'Yeah, that feels good.'

We were having such a great time that the evening slipped by and before we knew it; we had half an hour to get to the train station.

Jeremy kindly called us a cab.

We jumped into the cab as soon as it arrived and Wayne stated that we only had 10 minutes to catch the last train or we would miss it. The taxi driver got us quickly to the train station and we made the train with 2 minutes to spare.

We happily board the train, feeling satisfied with how we had spent our evening, knowing we would be seeing the guys again soon.

In Gratitude

PS from Wayne:

What I felt that evening was an intense passion for life that these three individuals have and how it transcends into their music on every level. They remain open to all there is and more than willing to discover and embrace new ideas into their lives that will expand themselves and everyone who connects with them.

To John the Chef, I bow gracefully to you in all your magnificence. To quote a Muppet Swedish Chef, "Hmmmmmm, bork, bork, hmmmmmm, bork bork"

I send heartfelt thanks to the boys, for sharing their passions and energies that evening in May, to help enhance my life. I appreciate you Jordan, Dallas and Jeremy, AKA-Frayed.

Peace and Love
