

Wayne's Note:

Man I love autumn in Canada and especially Ontario. If anyone has ever visited this province or had a chance to see what they call the fall colors, you will know what I mean. The warm days and cool evenings make the setting almost perfect for the vivid colors that emerge from trees everywhere.

This cavalcade of colors, seems like it could be the eight, nine or tenth wonder of the world. People flock from all over the world to view this spectacular event. It is not just looking at the colorful leaves, but the energy that can be felt from seeing such an awesome picture. I love the time spent climbing up to the top of a hill and sitting for hours just looking out at the sight of color everywhere. It's kind of like being tapped into my source....

Autumn also signals this edition of The Magic Happens Magazine, Issue number 5, of Humanity Thriving Out Loud. For those that are avid readers you will have seen our growth during these first few editions. I feel that the path is starting to lead where it was intended to be.

As with all things in life, we are always moving forward to get to that real feel good place for all. In this edition, you will notice that there is now a new menu near the top to click on so that you can quickly get to the sections of the magazine that inspires you most. Speaking of which, please check out this month's feature, on Inspired Action.

With the time restraints on myself, I fell down totally and the PDF documents are still around. Over the first few weeks of the release of this edition, all the documents will be set into their own pages on the web rather than in Adobe PDF format so if the pdf's bother you, come back in a couple of weeks and you won't have to deal with them any longer.

Be sure and check out our new advertiser's on the main page, on the advertising page and in the classifieds section. Also, check out what may end up being the one and only logo to be used by this magazine. Scroll to the bottom of the main page of the magazine to see the small version of the new logo and/or click on it to go directly to the larger version.

Second to last point; this is a free Internet Magazine and has been a true labor of love for all involved. From all of the responses we receive each month and to a growing readership of over 100,000 readers each month, I personally appreciate each and every one of you.

Finally, we do have Pay Pal donation buttons on the front page for those that wish to let us know how much they appreciate The Magic Happens.

Please feel free to contact me at anytime.

Peace and Love
