

Introduction to The Magic Happens, Humanity Thriving Out Loud, Autumn 2010 Edition.

TMH welcomes you to the Autumn Edition of The Magic Happens, Humanity Thriving Out Loud. We sincerely hope you enjoy reading this issue as much as we enjoyed preparing it for you.

The autumn season is now upon us and it brings with it a time of contemplation, giving thanks and appreciation for what the year has brought us. For those of us at TMH, we have much to be thankful for as our readership grows, our intentions manifest and our lives get better and better. What are you giving thanks for this year? We would love it if you would give us and our readers what you are grateful for in your life in 2010.

Type up what you are appreciating this harvest – 200 words or less will do – and send them to Kathleen. We will gather them up and post some of the best ones in the Winter Edition of The Magic Happens. Please include either an email address or your facebook account page so those who become a fan of your appreciation can offer you the kudos you deserve. :)

As the autumn approaches winter, it becomes a time of celebrating a year well done and making decisions about what we'd like to see happen in the New Year. It is our fondest hope that the material in this issue can assist you in creating a powerful celebration and making positive decisions for change in 2011.

The TMH crew hope to continue to improve and evolve in every possible capacity and for this we need a little help from you in a couple of different ways.

First, tell us what you would like to see in TMH. What would you like to read? What would serve you best as a faithful reader of The Magic Happens?

Second, as always, we have a call out for new contributors. Do you or someone you know enjoy writing words of wisdom on the subject of thriving and living well from an inner perspective? If you do (or know someone) then send an email to Wayne with the heading of, 'I want to play too' to begin the conversation. It would be awesome to see your first article in the Winter Edition of The Magic Happens due to be released on January 1st, 2011.

Well, that's it for today. :) We wish you a wonderful season full love and happiness. See you after Christmas, in the bright and shiny New Year.

Yours in Living Well
